

Gulf Coast College Weather Closure Notice

Due to the anticipated impacts from Hurricane Isaias and out of an abundance of caution for the safety of our students, faculty, and staff, the Gulfport and Metairie campuses will be closed Friday, October 9.

There will be no on-campus classes or activities on Friday. Program staff will communicate with affected students regarding externship requirements and any necessary make-up hours.

Please continue to monitor College communications for additional updates. Weather conditions can change quickly, and we encourage everyone to follow guidance from local emergency management officials, avoid unnecessary travel, and make personal safety your priority.

Please stay safe and take the necessary precautions to prepare for the storm.
